A: I always thought that after my graduation I will take up accounting as a profession but suddenly I was intrigued by audit profession and decided to give it a try and I must say it was the best decision that I made in my professional career. After having worked with Moore Stephens for over 2 years, I can say this that, my experience at Moore Stephens till now was a challenging and rewarding experience. I feel like I have gained more knowledge about auditing than I thought was possible in such a short amount of time. I wouldn't feel this way without the constant support of staff and managers who were always ready to answer my questions and to provide me the guidance that I needed. I am currently exposed to a lot of industries and big firms and because of which I am able to develop not only technical skills but also interpersonal skills.
